From Mrs Busari

Class 2 and 3 had an amazing trip to Neasden temple on Thursday. They learnt all about the building of the Mandir and the history of the temple. They also observed the Arti Ceremony and visited the exhibition. We were made to feel so welcome. The people at the temple were keen to let the children know that if they wanted to bring parents to visit, the temple is open for public visits on Saturdays. If you would like more information about this, please let us know and we will be happy to share this.

This week on Thursday it is World Book Day. The children are invited to come into school in their pyjamas to celebrate bedtime stories. Some children have asked if they can come in a world book day costume. That is also fine, we just didn't want parents to have the pressure of coming up with a costume that they may not already have. As part of the day, the children will be doing their sponsored read. Please help support this by sponsoring them and then we can hopefully buy lots of new and exciting books for the children to use.

I hope that you all have a lovely week in school.

With best wishes,

Mrs Jude Busari
